2024 MEDIA KIT

A five-time NATIONAL AWARD winning publication of the County Commissioners Association of Pennsylvania

County leaders have come to trust the Pennsylvania County News for the most up-to-date information about issues and ideas. Advertising in this magazine puts the name of companies who do, or want to do, business with counties directly in front of those decision makers.

THE VOICE OF PENNSYLVANIA COUNTIES

Topics in the Pennsylvania County News include dozens of issues touched by CCAP and counties, such as: human services (children and youth, mental health, intellectual disabilities, drug and alcohol, aging, housing), public safety, transportation, environmental issues, judicial administration, corrections, elections, emergency management, real estate tax assessments, community and economic development, public records management, government relations, communications, education, training, insurance programs and services, advocacy, technology, legislation, media relations, publications, risk management, vendor relations, and other leadership and community issues.

Why advertise in Pennsylvania County News?

Pennsylvania County News is the only magazine for and about PA's county government leaders, and is proud to be a national award winning publication.

Pennsylvania County News is thoroughly read – according to a recent survey, 91.5 percent of subscribers read some, most, or the entire magazine.

Receipt of the Pennsylvania County News is anticipated – nearly 80 percent of respondents said they read the magazine within the first two days of receiving it. Of the 80 percent, approximately half read it within the first 24 hours.

Pennsylvania County News is passed on – in a recent survey, 26 percent of subscribers said they share the magazine with others, meaning hundreds of additional people are reading it on a regular basis.

The Pennsylvania County News magazine has received superior publication awards from the National Association of County Information Officers (NACIO), and locally from the Central Pennsylvania Chapter of the Public Relations Society of America (PRSA).
